Founder's Day Celebration

Retirement of S. Manjeet S. Bhatia

Sardar Manjeet Singh Bhatia ji retired from service after attaining superannuation on 31st March 2015. He left a job in Central Bank of India to join the college in the year 1974 as a Lecturer in the Department of Commerce. During his dedicated service span of more than four decades, Mr. Bhatia earned the distinction of being one of the few committed teachers in the college who are always sincere, honest and punctual. He was respected and admired by his students as well as the colleagues. Besides being a devoted teacher, Mr. Bhatia served the college in various Committees like Admission Committee, Examination Committee, Students' Union as well as the Bursar of the college. Possessor of an in-depth knowledge and keen interest in Gurbani and other Sikh religious texts, Mr. Bhatia has always been active in the divinity activities of the college. He was bid farewell by his colleagues on the day of his superannuation. The college wishes him long life and good days ahead!
